excerpt from studies in theology lectures delivered in chicago theological seminary the lectures which compose this volume were delivered in april 1894 to the chicago theological seminary and are published at the request of the faculty of that institution they do not amount to a system of theology but the writer believes they are consistent with each other and would find their place in a system they are printed as they were delivered with one exception the ninth lecture which excited considerable discussion in the circles to which it was first addressed has been re written not with the view of retracting or qualifying anything but in order as far as possible to obviate misconception and secure a readier acceptance for what the writer thinks true ideas on the authority of scripture the notes have been added partly to justify the statements made in the lectures as to the opinions of various theologians and schools partly to acknowledge the writer s
